

FROM RESILIENCE TO RECOVERY

The Critical Role For Ukrainian Civil Society

September 29

DAY 1: Synchronizing approaches and processes and paving the way to inclusive and supported reconstruction and recovery

09:00 – 09:30 – arrivals, registration and welcome coffee

KYIV and online

09:30 – 10:00 – Opening: introductory remarks

Remi Duflot, Deputy Head of EU Delegation

Assia Ivantcheva, National Endowment for Democracy

Oleksandr Sushko, International Renaissance Foundation

KYIV and online

10:00 - 11:00 - Setting the scene: Three months after the Lugano Manifesto:

Where are we?

What's the dynamics? What has been achieved? What is not working? What's in the Ukrainian government's Recovery Plan? What are civil society and other stakeholders doing? What should be the priorities of civil society?

Speakers:

Yevhen Hlibovytsky, Pro.Mova (online)

Valery Pekar, Nova Kraina

Ihor Burakovsky, Institute for Economic Research and Policy Consulting

Larisa Galadza, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Canada to Ukraine

Hanna Hopko, National Interest Advocacy Network (ANTS)

Roland Kovats, USAID / ENGAGE (online)

Moderator: Oleksandr Sushko, International Renaissance Foundation

KYIV and online

11:00 – 12:15 - Panel discussion 1: Continued war and early recovery at the same time: Situation Analysis and Scenarios for the future

What do we know about people's expectations of living in the war and beyond the war? What moods and expectations are there in the Ukrainian society? How they can affect early recovery? What are the current trends on the battlefield, in the economy and society? What are the immediate priorities? What institutional and policy solutions are if the war continues? What are the realities and bottlenecks to be addressed? The difficult winter ahead: ensuring resilience and early recovery phase together. Are we ready for the “war economy” and what does it mean (special regulations, taxation etc)?

Speakers:

Yulia Svyrydenko, Vice Prime Minister, Minister of Economy - INVITED

Petro Burkovsky, Democratic initiatives Foundation

Tamta Otiashvili, National Democratic Institute (online)

Hlib Vyshlinsky, Center for Economic Strategy

Mykhailyna Skoryk, Bucha City Council

Dmytro Boyarchuk, CASE Ukraine

Tetiana Ivanina, Gender Bureau

Moderator: Mychailo Wynnyckyj, Kyiv Mohyla Academy

LVIV and online

11:00 – 12:15 – Panel discussion 1: Continued war and early recovery at the same time: Situation Analysis and Scenarios for the future: What changes and needs at the regional level?

What do we know about people’s expectations of living in the war and beyond the war? What moods and expectations are there in the Ukrainian society? How they can affect early recovery? What challenges are there at the regional level? What are the immediate priorities and how the regions are working towards meeting them? How the regions are getting ready for the “war economy” and what does it mean at the regional level? How participation looks like and what is needed to make it stronger?

Speakers:

Maksym Kozytsky, Lviv Regional Military Administration

Taras Khavunka, Lviv Regulatory Hub

Dmytro Tuzhansky, The Institute for Central European Strategy

Oleksiy Kolesnikov, Association of Community Self-Organization Assistance

Ella Lamakh, Democracy Development Center

Ihor Dobryansky, Center of Civic Initiatives

Moderator: Zoya Krasovska, Lviv Media Forum

12:15 – 12:30 - Lviv and Kyiv moderators present the discussion highlights

Mychailo Wynnyckyj, Kyiv Mohyla Academy

Zoya Krasovska, Lviv Media Forum

12:30 – 13:30 – networking lunch

(PARALLEL DISCUSSIONS

KYIV and online

13:30 – 14:30 - Panel discussion 2: How have citizens, businesses and local authorities become a major factor in the resilience of Ukraine?

(Organizer: ISAR Ednannia)

What civil society, citizens and business engagement mechanisms are available at the regional, local levels? Volunteers? NGOs? Role for small and medium business?

What has been already being done in communities? What mechanisms are needed? What capacity of non-profit organizations is (needed) to be part of recovery? How to make the recovery inclusive and open? What is already being done to enhance community resilience and participatory governance? What helps build effective collaborations between civil society and other stakeholders?

Speakers:

Oleksandr Senkevych, Mayor of Mykolayiv (online)

Maryna Khonda, Deputy Head, Kyiv City State Administration

Yuriy Bova, Mayor of Trostyanets (online)

Natalia Drozd, Dobrochyn Center for Social Well-being

Oleksandra Hlizhynska, All-Ukrainian Active Community Initiative

Andriy Dlygach, Advanter Group

Pavlo Moroz, Myronivsky Khliboproduct

Moderator: Oleksandr Solontay, Agency for Recovery and Development, Institute of Political Education

LVIV and online

13:30 – 14:30 - Panel discussion 2: How have citizens, businesses and local authorities become a major factor in the resilience of Ukraine?

(Organizer: IRF)

- What civil society, citizens and business engagement mechanisms are available at the regional, local levels? Volunteers? NGOs? Role for small and medium business?
- What has been already being done in communities? What mechanisms are needed? What capacity of non-profit organizations is (needed) to be part of recovery? How to make the recovery inclusive and open? What is already being done to enhance community resilience and participatory governance? What helps build effective collaborations between civil society and other stakeholders?

Speakers:

Andriy Sadovyi, Mayor of Lviv

Tobias Thyberg, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Sweden to Ukraine

Yuri Fyliuk, founder, Promprylad Renovation

Igor Koliushko, Center for Political and Legal Reforms

Iryna Hayduchyk, Volyn Institute of Law

Oleksandra Shchukina, Smart Media

Lyubov Maksymovych, NGO Center "Women's Perspectives"

Moderator: Svyatoslav Pavliuk, Director, Association of Energy Efficient Cities

14:30 – 14:45 - Lviv and Kyiv moderators present the discussion highlights

Svyatoslav Pavliuk, Director, Association of Energy Efficient Cities

Oleksandr Solontay, Agency for Recovery and Development, Institute of Political Education

14:45 – 15:45 – Panel discussion 3: How we Build and Maintain Social Cohesion and Enable Social Recovery?

KYIV

Uliana Tokareva, Deputy Minister of Social Policy

Ivan Naumenko, Back and Alive

Olesya Ostrovska-Lyuta, National Cultural and Art and Museum Complex "Mystetskyi Arsenal"

Ihor Kozlovsky, religion scholar

Yulia Tyshchenko, National Platform for Sustainability and Cohesion; Ukrainian Center for Independent Political Research

Larysa Kobelyanska, Public Council on Gender (PCG Kyiv)

Moderator: Iryna Solovei, Spilnocosht, Garage Gang, BiggggIdea

LVIV

14:45 – 15:45 – Panel discussion 3: How we Build and Maintain Social Cohesion and Enable Social Recovery?

(Co-organizer: IFES)

Maryana Kashchak, Ukrainian educational platform

Olga Martynovska, Group of Influence

● Anastasiya Perepelytsia, "Radnyk" Civic Advisors Program

● Iryna Fedorovich, Fight for Right

● Tetyana Naumenko, Office of Mayor of Lviv

● Vitaliy Chornenkyi, Association of Civic Education Teachers

Moderators: Volodymyr Beglov, America House, host, "Plans for Tomorrow" podcast

15:45 - 16:00 - Lviv and Kyiv moderators present the discussion highlights

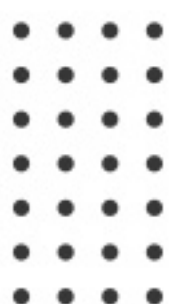

Iryna Solovei, Spilnocosht, Garage Gang, BiggggIdea

Volodymyr Beglov, America House, host, "Plans for Tomorrow" podcast

16:00 – 16:30 – networking coffee break

16:30 – 18:00 - Making recovery work: innovative, just, green and people-centred

PARALLEL SESSIONS

Session 1 (KYIV): How to ensure and implement rights-based, just and inclusive recovery?

Speakers:

Tetiana Pechonchyk, Zmina Human Rights Centre

Oleksandra Matviychuk, Centre for Civil Liberties

Natalia Gozak, Ecodiya

Nadiya Kovalchuk, Right to Protection

Anna Sharyhina, Sphere NGO

Moderator: Larysa Denysenko, human rights lawyer, writer

Session 2 (KYIV). How to finance inclusive and transparent recovery and economic resilience?

How much funding and for what purposes is already designated and disbursed? What are the conditions and tools? Plans, programs, ideas and approaches from donors. How do the civil society, Ukrainian government and international partners see mechanisms for civic participation?

Speakers:

Olha Zykova, Deputy Minister of Finance of Ukraine

Victor Maziarchuk, Accounting Chamber of the Parliament of Ukraine

Yaroslav Zheleznyak, Member of Parliament

Yuriy Romashko, Institute for Analysis and Advocacy

Oleksandra Betliy, Institute for Economic Research and Policy

Olena Pavlenko, Dixi Group

Moderator: Hlib Vyshlinsky, Center for Economic Strategy

Session 3 (LVIV): Smart Recovery: How to implement a human-centric approach?

Speakers:

- Roman Zinchenko, Greencubator
 - Oleg Drozdov, Kharkiv School of Architecture, Ro3kvit urban coalition
 - Yuriy Chaplynsky, blogger, architect
 - Sofia Burtak, Rural Women's Business Association
 - Maksym Holovko, Curator, Urbanyna, Agency Zmin
 - Iryna Fishchuk, entrepreneur, "Ridni" Initiative (online)
- Moderator: Sofia Chelyak, Program Director, Lviv Bookforum, Suspilne Culture

18:00 – 18:30 - Lviv and Kyiv moderators present the discussion highlights

Larysa Denysenko, human rights lawyer, writer

Hlib Vyshlinsky, Center for Economic Strategy

Sofia Chelyak, Program Director, Ukrainian Publishers Forum; anchor, Suspilne Culture

18:30 – 20:00 – networking dinner

September 30

DAY 2: Civil society's priorities: what are the next steps?

08:30 - 09:00 - registration and welcome coffee

KYIV

09:00 – 09:30 – Recap of Day 1: Where the government and civil society (can) collaborate?

Speakers:

Yevhen Bystrytsky, Election Council UA

Maksym Latsyba, Ukrainian Center for Independent Political Research

Moderator: Svitlana Matviyenko, Agency for Legislative Analysis

09:30 – 10:30 – Panel discussion 4: Architecture of Transparency and Accountability of the recovery process (Co-organizers: EUACI, SACCI / USAID)

What (additional?) infrastructure, instruments and mechanisms are needed? What legislative changes? What registers and public data we need to open and how to do that? What accountability mechanisms are proposed by the National Recovery Council? What role and plans of NACP in ensuring integrity of recovery, corruption risk assessments, whistleblowers protection, and strengthening state bodies' compliance procedures? Who is going to be a local watchdog? Is there demand and capacity to ensure transparency and accountability at the subnational level?

Speakers:

Andrii Borovyk, Transparency International Ukraine, RISE Coalition

Olena Shuliak, Member of Parliament of Ukraine

Andriy Vyshnevsky, Deputy Head, National Agency for Corruption Prevention

Nadia Babynska-Virna, Open Up Coalition

Martyna Bohuslavets, Institute of Legislative Ideas

Moderator: Iryna Shyba, EU Anti-Corruption Initiative

KYIV

10:30 – 11:30 - Panel discussion 5: Linking Ukraine's recovery and integration to the EU

How Ukraine's EU candidacy moves forward recovery and reforms? What are the priorities and what is outstanding? How just and green recovery moves Ukraine closer to the EU?

Speakers:

Tetyana Kovtun, Office of Reforms of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine

Serhiy Solodkyi, New Europe Center

Gregory Tsouris, EU Delegation to Ukraine

Natalia Andrushevych, Center for Society and Environment

Yulia Kyrychenko, Center for Political and Legal Reform

Moderator: Serhiy Sydorenko, Evropeiska Pravda

LVIV

10:30 – 16:30 - INTERACTIVE EVENT: Navigator for Civil Society Participation in Advancing Ukraine's Victory

(Organizer: ISAR Ednannia, LVIV)

What the civil society can do now? What are the capacities and needs of civil society? What will be the civil society's role(s) in recovery and what does it need to succeed? What is needed to help CSOs to find themselves in recovery and get a better understanding of engagement mechanisms and opportunities to engage, and identify/ meet capacity needs

11:30 – 12:00 – coffee break

(TWO PARALLEL SESSIONS - KYIV offline + online)

12:00 – 13:00 – Smart Solutions for Recovery – Part 1

Session 1 - How to get citizens on board? The role of independent media and communications in reconstruction and recovery

(Organizer: NED)

- What is the role and the mission of independent media for the reconstruction efforts? How can media facilitate communication in the occupied territories/during the de-occupation?
- How can media keep the government accountable? What risks will disinformation posit for the reconstruction efforts and how to avert them? How can media amplify civil society involvement in the reconstruction and recovery efforts

Speakers:

Olga Rudenko, Kyiv Independent

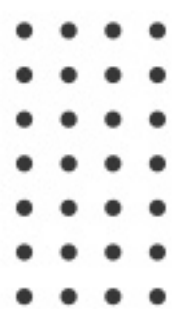

Svitlana Ostapa, Detector Media, Chair of the Supervisory Board of Suspilne

Sergiy Sydorenko, European Pravda

Moderator: Assia Ivantcheva, National Endowment for Democracy

Section 2: Human Capital, Participation and Community Voices: how it should be working for recovery?

What have been the human costs of the war? What human capital challenges does Ukraine face? What would be the costs of failure to recover human capital and what the focus of recovery should be? How to make recovery human-centric?

Speakers:

Lilia Hrynevych, fmr Minister of Education; ReOsvita

Anna Novosad, fmr Minister of Education; SaveEd

Oksana Kolyada, "Space of Opportunities" Veterans Hubs Network

Svitlana Suprun, ENGAGE / USAID (online)

Tetiana Gavrysh, Agency of Change "Perspektyva"

Svitlana Garashchenko, Support to Ukraine's Reforms for Governance project (SURGe)

Moderator: Ivanna Kobernyk, Smart Osvita

13:00 – 14:00 – lunch

14:00 – 15:00 – Smart Solutions for Recovery – Part 2

PARALLEL SESSIONS

Section 1: Digital solutions for interaction and participation (examples of platforms and tools)

Victor Liakh, East Europe Foundation

Maxym Nefyodov, Damaged.in.ua

Victor Nestulya, RISE Coalition

Vanessa Goas, Development Gateway (online)

Nataliya Chornohub, Open Data Association / YouControl

Maxym Fedoseyenko, Kyiv School of Economics

Moderator: Oleksiy Sobolev, Prozorro.Prodazhi

Session 2 – Youth vision of recovery: lessons and solutions that can strengthen communities across Ukraine

(Organizer: IREX, USAID/UNITY Program)

- What is the vision for the future of Ukraine and what recovery means to youth who are already doing their share? Showcasing solutions that strengthen resilience and build grounds for recovery: infrastructure for finding employment; coordinating and systematizing peer-to-peer help to address needs of war-affected populations; redesigning youth centers' services to turn them into youth magnets and community development hubs that build cohesion between local residents and IDPs, young and elderly, local governments and activists, drive new development ideas and offer psycho-social support. Including vulnerable and less-represented groups in rebuilding of ruined cities and villages. Designing cutting-edge solutions to local recovery problems. Replicating the solutions and highlighting lessons learned: open discussion of what works and what does not.

Speakers:

Yevhenia Napuda, project coordinator of Vilnohub Uzhhorod

Iryna Tulyakova, co-founder and lead of SpivDiia Civic Response Platform

Maryna Popatenko, Deputy Minister of Youth and Sports

Mykola Mokryk, Manager of Zdolbuniv Youth Center, media literacy driver

Yelyzaveta Korenko, founder of STEM is FEM NGO, lead of female urbanism project

Yevhen Ursalov, Recovery Case Championship, CASERS

Rustam Savranskyi, EDYN Ukraine Chairman

Moderator: Yuliya Tkachuk, IREX / USAID UNITY Program

15:00 – 16:00 – Panel discussion 6: International Support for Civil Society's Role in Ukraine's Reconstruction and Recovery

What are international donors' views and plans for funding meaningful engagement of Ukraine's civil society in recovery? How to provide resources for civil society's inputs to the recovery work - for both the immediate needs and long-term?

(Organizer: German Marshall Fund)

Speakers:

Erin Elizabeth McKee, Assistant Administrator, Bureau for Europe and Eurasia, USAID (online)

Katarina Mathernova, Deputy Director General, DG NEAR, European Union, Head of Support Group for Ukraine, European Commission (online)

Ole Egberg Mikkelsen, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Kingdom of Denmark to Ukraine

Nicolas Harrocks, Deputy Head of Mission, HM Consul, Embassy of the United Kingdom to Ukraine

Anton Artemiev, Division Director, Europe and Central Asia, Open Society Foundations (online)

Moderator: Olena Prokopenko, Fellow, German Marshall Fund of the United States, Transatlantic Task Force for Ukraine

16:00 – 16:30 - coffee break

16:30 - 17:30 - Civil society agenda between now and 2023 London recovery conference: conclusions, takeaways and next steps

What needs to be done to ensure meaningful civic participation in recovery?

Speakers:

Volodymyr Yermolenko, UkraineWorld / Internews Ukraine

● Mykhailo Zhernakov, DeJure Foundation

● Nataliya Klymova, ISAR Ednannia (online)

● Sinziana Poiana, EU Delegation to Ukraine (online)

● Oleksandr Sushko, International Renaissance Foundation

Moderator: Natalia Sokolenko, Hromadske Radio

The Conference "From Resilience to Recovery: the Critical Role for Ukrainian Civil Society?" is organised by the International Renaissance Foundation with the support of the European Union, the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), Global Affairs Canada and UK aid and in close cooperation with the Delegation of the European Union to Ukraine, USAID/ENGAGE, ISAR Ednannia "Ukraine Civil Society Sectoral Support Activity" with financial support by USAID, Support to Anti-Corruption Champion Institutions (SACCI) Program, East Europe Foundation, EUACI, National Endowment for Democracy, National Democratic Institute, International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES), Embassy of Sweden to Ukraine, USAID/UNITY Program implemented by IREX, and the German Marshall Fund of the USA.

All points of view are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Union, USAID, nor the governments of the United States, Canada, or the UK, the International Renaissance Foundation, Delegation of the European Union to Ukraine, USAID/ENGAGE, ISAR Ednannia "Ukraine Civil Society Sectoral Support Activity" with financial support by USAID, Support to Anti-Corruption Champion Institutions (SACCI) Program, East Europe Foundation, EUACI, National Endowment for Democracy, National Democratic Institute, International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES), Embassy of Sweden to Ukraine, USAID/UNITY Program implemented by IREX, and the German Marshall Fund of the USA.